

Pointing Patios & Paving Slabs.

The Point Master is very effective when applying mortar in patios and paving slabs.

Because the Point Master's design ensures that the cement cavity is filled from the back, paving joints are completely sealed. This is far more effective than the traditional method of using dry cement, as gaps and air pockets are removed and a "complete fill" is ensured.

